This year, the centre has been privileged to be supported by 31 partners from within DEC, other government departments, corporations and community groups.

TARGETS 2014

- Deliver sustainability education programs to students that support DEC literacy and numeracy priorities
- Increase and enrich student engagement in authentic learning and leadership initiatives around ecological sustainability
- Build capacity for quality teaching and learning outcomes through the provision of professional learning experiences for teachers K-12

Observatory Hill Environmental Education Centre – NSW DEC